

Customized Solutions

Through years of developing advanced analytical technologies, EDGAR Online has an expertise that extends well beyond the delivery of SEC documents. We extract critical company data in real-time, verify its accuracy, convert it to value-added formats, like XML and XBRL, database the information and then deliver it in customizable views and multiple formats.

I-Metrix Data Feeds provide flexible solutions for your data needs.

Whatever information you need – however you need it mixed, matched and integrated into your work flow – EDGAR Online can provide it through I-Metrix Data Feeds.

Data sets are available with the following information:

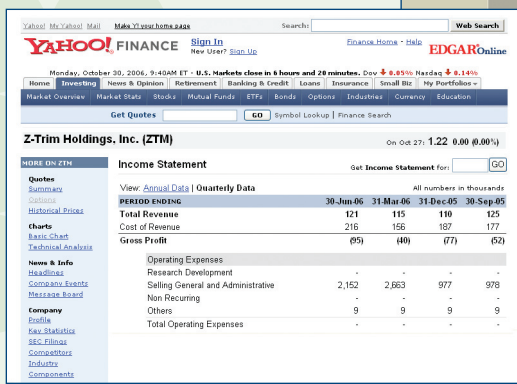

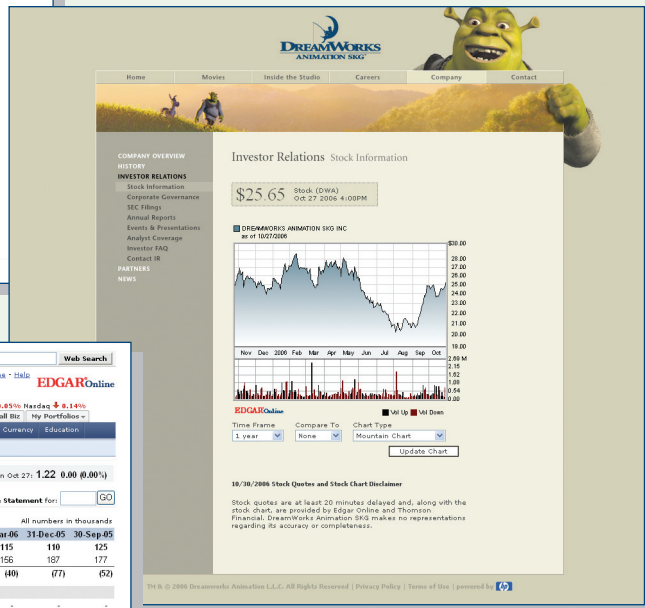

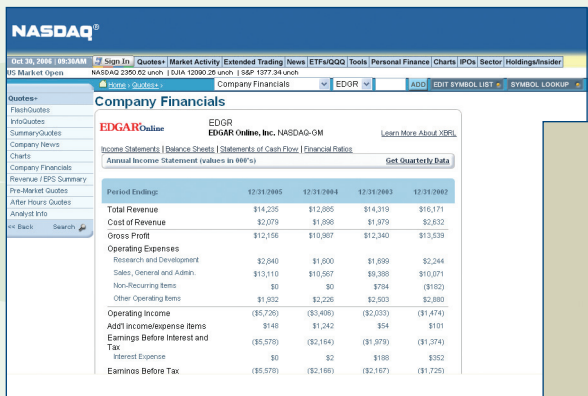

- Institutional Ownership
- Insider Trades
- Initial and Secondary Public Offering Information
- Fundamental Financial Data (BS/IS/CF statement items)
- XBRL Financial Data (BS/IS/CF statement items)
- SEC Filings
- Global Data
- Quotes
- Charts
- Company News
- Company People
- Ratios (including sector, industry and SIC codes mean and median)
- Content Monitor Topics

I-Metrix Data Feeds are perfect for:

- Powering proprietary applications
- Supplying information for internal websites
- Providing investor tools
- Improving internal research

I-Metrix Data Feeds provide the ultimate in flexibility to combine different data sets and delivery methods. Delivery methods include: CSV, smart-pull through API, FTP pickup, one time delivery of historical information, plus an ongoing stream of updates and more.

Need something unique? If the information resides in an SEC filing, our experts and advanced technology can get the information you're looking for and deliver it to you the way you want it.
